Executive Director's Report (6): Mrs. Furr's Executive Director's report discussed several items, including the reasons for the foregoing motions that had been presented to the Trustees for their approval.

Mrs. Furr also announced that owner of the Metro Center Mall is closing much of the space in the mall, including the book store for JHLS, which will close on February 28, 2018.

Approved by the Board of Trustees at its Regular Meeting on February 28, 2018.

Mrs. Furr discussed the continuing search and various possibilities for space for the Tisdale Library and the Library System's administration offices as the current space for those offices must be vacated by September 30, 2018.

Mrs. Furr addressed the Trustees' concerns about the Board's directly making recommendations to the City Council and Board of Supervisors about Tisdale Library and Welt Library, funding for the Library System and related matters. Ensuing discussion resulted in no approved action but the proposition that the Trustees should make their desires clearly known to the Executive Director that she would serve as their voice, their representative, before those governing bodies.
